At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of July 2009

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 79(3) of the International Criminal Court Act 2001(a), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, as follows:

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the International Criminal Court Act 2001 (Overseas Territories) Order 2009 and shall come into force on 1 September 2009.

Extent and interpretation

2.—(1) The provisions of the International Criminal Court Act 2001, with the exceptions, adaptations and modifications as in Annex 1 to this Order, shall extend to the territories listed in Annex 2 to this Order.

(2) The provisions of the International Criminal Court Act 2001, as so excepted, adapted and modified, shall in their application to certain of the said territories be subject to the further exceptions, adaptations and modifications set out in Annex 3 to this Order.

Interpretation

3.—(1) Except as otherwise provided, in the application of the International Criminal Court Act 2001 to any of the territories to which it is extended, the expression “the Territory” means that territory.

(a) 2001 c.17

(2) In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears–

“the Attorney General” means the Attorney General of the Territory and includes any person for the time being lawfully performing the functions of the Attorney General;

“appellate court” means the court or courts of the Territory, however styled, which possess appellate jurisdiction from decisions of the Supreme Court;

“constable” includes an officer of the police force or police service of the Territory;

“customs officer” means an officer who, under the law of the Territory relating to the control of exports or imports, is authorised to enforce such controls;

“the Governor” means the Governor or other officer administering the Government of the Territory;

“official gazette” includes any form in which official information is normally made available in the Territory;

“Supreme Court” means the court of the Territory, however styled, which possesses unlimited original jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters (but does not include a court which has appellate jurisdiction from such a court).

(3) Where a request is made by the International Criminal Court to the Secretary of State and is transmitted by him to the Governor, any references in this Order to a request made by the Court to the Governor shall be treated as including references to a request so made to the Secretary of State and so transmitted to the Governor.

Exercise of powers of the Governor

4. The Governor may, to such extent and subject to such restrictions and conditions as he may think proper, delegate, or authorise the delegation of, any of his powers under this Order to any person, or class or description of persons, approved by him, and references in this Order to the Governor shall be construed accordingly.

Judith Simpson
Clerk of the Privy Council

ANNEX 1

Article 2(1)

EXTENSION OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT ACT 2001, WITH EXCEPTIONS, ADAPTATIONS AND MODIFICATIONS, TO THE TERRITORIES LISTED IN ANNEX 2

THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

The ICC and the ICC Statute

5.—(1) In this Act–

“the ICC” means the International Criminal Court established by the Statute of the International Criminal Court, done at Rome on 17th July 1998;

“the ICC Statute” means that Statute; and “ICC crime” means a crime (other than the crime of aggression) over which the ICC has jurisdiction in accordance with the ICC Statute.

(2) References in this Act to articles are, unless otherwise indicated, to articles of the ICC Statute.

(3) Schedule 1 to this Act contains supplementary provisions relating to the ICC.

PART 2

ARREST AND DELIVERY OF PERSONS

Proceedings on request

Request for arrest and surrender

6.—(1) Where the Governor receives a request from the ICC for the arrest and surrender of a person alleged to have committed an ICC crime, or to have been convicted by the ICC, he shall transmit the request and the documents accompanying it to an appropriate judicial officer.

(2) Omitted

(3) If the request is accompanied by a warrant of arrest and the appropriate judicial officer is satisfied that the warrant appears to have been issued by the ICC, he shall endorse the warrant for execution in the Territory.

(4) If in the case of a person convicted by the ICC the request is not accompanied by a warrant of arrest, but is accompanied by—

- (a) a copy of the judgment of conviction,
- (b) information to demonstrate that the person sought is the one referred to in the judgment of conviction, and
- (c) where the person sought has been sentenced, a copy of the sentence imposed and a statement of any time already served and the time remaining to be served, the officer shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the person to whom the request relates.

(5) In this Part a warrant endorsed or issued under this section is referred to as a “section 2 warrant”.

Request for provisional arrest

7.—(1) This section applies where the Governor receives from the ICC a request for the provisional arrest of a person alleged to have committed an ICC crime or to have been convicted by the ICC.

(2) If it appears to the Governor that application for a warrant should be made in the Territory—

- (a) he shall transmit the request to a constable and direct the constable to apply for a warrant for the arrest of that person, and
- (b) on an application by a constable stating on oath that he has reason to believe—
 - (i) that a request has been made on grounds of urgency by the ICC for the arrest of a person, and
 - (ii) that the person is in, or on his way to, the Territory, an appropriate judicial officer shall issue a warrant for the arrest of that person.

(3) Omitted

(4) Where an appropriate judicial officer issues a warrant under this section, he shall notify the Governor that he has done so.

(5) In this Part a warrant issued under this section is referred to as a “provisional warrant”.

Dealing with a person arrested under provisional warrant

8.—(1) A person arrested under a provisional warrant shall be brought before a competent court as soon as is practicable.

(2) If there is produced to the court a section 2 warrant in respect of that person, the court shall proceed as if he had been arrested under that warrant.

(3) If no such warrant is produced, the court shall remand him pending the production of such a warrant.

(4) Any provision made by Order in Council under paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 to this Act as it applies in the United Kingdom (power to make provision to give effect to Rules of Evidence and Procedure) specifying—

- (a) the period for which a person may be so remanded at any time, and
- (b) the total period for which a person may be so remanded, shall likewise apply in the Territory.

(5) If at any time when the person is so remanded there is produced to the court a section 2 warrant in respect of him—

- (a) the court shall terminate the period of remand, and
- (b) he shall be treated as if arrested under that warrant—
 - (i) if he was remanded in custody, at the time the warrant was produced to the court;
 - (ii) if he was remanded on bail, when he surrenders to his bail.

(6) If no such warrant is produced to the court before the end of the period of the remand (including any extension of that period), the court shall discharge him.

(7) The fact that a person has been discharged under this section does not prevent his subsequent arrest under a section 2 warrant.

Proceedings for delivery order

9.—(1) A person arrested under a section 2 warrant shall be brought before a competent court as soon as is practicable.

(2) The competent court shall make a delivery order if it is satisfied—

- (a) that the warrant—
 - (i) is a warrant of the ICC and has been duly endorsed under section 2(3), or
 - (ii) has been duly issued under section 2(4), and
- (b) that the person brought before the court is the person named or described in the warrant.

(3) A “delivery order” is an order that the person be delivered up—

- (a) into the custody of the ICC, or
- (b) if the ICC so directs in the case of a person convicted by the ICC, into the custody of the state of enforcement, in accordance with arrangements made by the Governor.

(4) In the case of a person alleged to have committed an ICC crime, the competent court may adjourn the proceedings pending the outcome of any challenge before the ICC to the admissibility of the case or to the jurisdiction of the ICC.

(5) In deciding whether to make a delivery order the competent court is not concerned to enquire—

- (a) whether any warrant issued by the ICC was duly issued, or
- (b) in the case of a person alleged to have committed an ICC crime, whether there is evidence to justify his trial for the offence he is alleged to have committed.

(6) Whether or not it makes a delivery order, the competent court may of its own motion, and shall on the application of the person arrested, determine—

- (a) whether the person was lawfully arrested in pursuance of the warrant, and
- (b) whether his rights have been respected.

(7) In making a determination under subsection (6) the competent court shall apply the principles which would be applied on an application for judicial review.

(8) If the competent court determines—

- (a) that the person has not been lawfully arrested in pursuance of the warrant, or
- (b) that the person's rights have not been respected, it shall make a declaration to that effect, but may not grant any other relief.

(9) The competent court shall notify the Governor of any declaration under subsection (8) and the Governor shall transmit that notification to the ICC.

Supplementary provisions as to proceedings before competent court

10.—(1) Omitted

(2) In relation to proceedings before a competent court under section 5—

- (a) the court has the like powers, as nearly as may be, including power to adjourn the case and meanwhile to remand the person whose surrender is sought, as if the proceedings were the summary trial of an information against that person;
- (b) if the court adjourns the proceedings, it shall on doing so remand the person whose surrender is sought;
- (c) the proceedings are criminal proceedings for the purposes of any law of the Territory, or other arrangements in the Territory, for the provision of legal advice, assistance or representation in criminal proceedings;
- (d) the provisions of the law of the Territory as to defence costs on dismissal of proceedings apply, reading references to the dismissal of the proceedings, however expressed, as a reference to the discharge of the person arrested.

(3) Omitted

Consent to surrender

11.—(1) A person arrested under this Part may consent to being delivered up into the custody of the ICC or, in the case of a person convicted by the ICC, of the state of enforcement.

This is referred to below as “consent to surrender”.

(2) Consent to surrender may be given—

- (a) by the person himself, or
- (b) in circumstances in which it is inappropriate for the person to act for himself, by reason of his physical or mental condition or his youth, by an appropriate person acting on his behalf.

(3) Consent to surrender must—

- (a) be given in writing in the prescribed form or a form to the like effect, and
- (b) be signed in the presence of a magistrate or other judicial officer.

The “prescribed form” means that prescribed by rules made by the rule-making authority for the competent court.

(4) Where consent to surrender has been given—

- (a) a competent court before which the person is brought shall forthwith make a delivery order, and
- (b) he shall be taken to have waived his rights under section 12 (right to review of delivery order).

(5) Where consent to surrender has been given, notice of that fact shall be given—

- (a) if the person is in custody, to the prison governor, constable or other person in whose custody he is;
 - (b) if the person is on bail in the Territory, to the officer in charge of the police station at which is required to surrender to custody.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(b) notice shall be treated as given if it is sent by registered post, or recorded delivery, addressed to the officer mentioned.

Proceedings where court refuses delivery order

Procedure where court refuses order

- 12.—(1) If a competent court refuses to make a delivery order, it shall—
- (a) make an order remanding the person arrested, and
 - (b) notify the Governor of its decision and of the grounds for it.
- (2) If the court is informed without delay that an appeal is to be brought under section 9, the order remanding the person arrested shall continue to have effect.
- (3) If the court is not so informed, it shall discharge the person arrested.

Appeal against refusal of delivery order

13.—(1) If a competent court in the Territory refuses to make a delivery order, the Governor may appeal against the decision to the Supreme Court.

No permission is required for such an appeal, which shall be by the way of re-hearing.

- (2) If the Supreme Court allows the appeal it may—
- (a) make a delivery order, or
 - (b) remit the case to the competent court to make a delivery order in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court.
- (3) If the Supreme Court dismisses the appeal, the Governor may follow the normal appellate process applicable in the Territory so as to appeal the decision of the Supreme Court.
- (4) If the Governor's appeal is ultimately unsuccessful, the Governor may, with the permission of the relevant appellate court or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

The right to seek leave to appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council under this section shall exist even where the provisions of the applicable law in force in the Territory concerning an appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council do not include a right to appeal in the circumstances covered by this section. The provisions of the applicable law in force in the Territory shall apply in relation to an appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council under this section, with the omission of such provisions as may restrict the grant of leave to appeal.

(5) On any appeal from the Supreme Court, an appellate court and the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council may exercise any of the powers conferred on the Supreme Court by subsection (2) above.

(6) Where a delivery order is made by the Supreme Court, an appellate court or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, the provisions of section 11(1)(a) and (c), (2) and (3) (procedure where court makes delivery order) apply in relation to that court as they apply to a competent court in the Territory which makes a delivery order.

(7) An order for the remand of the arrested person which continues in force under section 8(2) shall cease to have effect if the Supreme Court or an appellate court dismisses the appeal and the Governor does not without delay—

- (a) apply for permission to appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, or
- (b) inform the Supreme Court or the appellate court that he intends to apply for such permission.

Subject to that, any such order shall have effect so long as the case is pending. For this purpose a case is pending (unless proceedings are discontinued) until (disregarding any power of a court to allow a step to be taken out of time) there is no step that the Governor can take.

14. Omitted

Proceedings where the court makes delivery order

Procedure where court makes order

15.—(1) Where a competent court makes a delivery order in respect of a person, the court shall—

- (a) commit the person to custody or on bail to await the Governor’s directions as to the execution of the order,
- (b) inform the person of his rights under section 12 (right to review of delivery order) in ordinary terms and in a language which appears to the court to be one which he fully understands and speaks, and
- (c) notify the Governor of its decision.

(2) A person committed to custody under subsection (1)(a) shall be committed to prison or to the custody of a constable.

(3) A court which commits a person to custody under subsection (1)(a) may subsequently grant bail.

Right to review of delivery order

16.—(1) The Governor shall not give directions for the execution of a delivery order until after the end of the period of 15 days beginning with the date on which the order is made.

This does not apply if the person in respect of whom the order is made—

- (a) waives his rights under this section (see section 13), or
- (b) is taken to have done so (see section 7(4)(b)).

(2) If before the end of that period an application for habeas corpus is made by the person in respect of whom the delivery order is made, or on his behalf, directions for the execution of the order shall not be given while proceedings on the application are still pending.

(3) Proceedings on any such application shall be treated as pending until they are discontinued or there is no further possibility of an appeal.

For this purpose any power of a court to allow an appeal out of time shall be disregarded.

(4) On an application for habeas corpus to which this section applies—

- (a) the court shall set aside the delivery order and order the person’s discharge if it is not satisfied of the matters mentioned in section 5(2), and
- (b) the provisions of section 5(4) to (9) apply in relation to the court to which the application is made as they apply to the court that made the delivery order (but with the substitution in section 5(6) for “makes a delivery order” of “sets aside the delivery order”).

(5) Omitted

Waiver of right to review

17.—(1) A person in respect of whom a delivery order has been made may waive his right to review of the order.

(2) Waiver of the right to review may be made—

- (a) by the person himself, or
- (b) in circumstances in which it is appropriate for a person to act for himself, by reason of his physical or mental condition or his youth, by an appropriate person acting on his behalf.

- (3) Waiver of the right to review must—
 - (a) be made in writing in the prescribed form or a form to the like effect, and
 - (b) be signed in the presence of a magistrate or other judicial officer.

The “prescribed form” means that prescribed by rules made by the rule-making authority for the competent court.

- (4) Where a person has waived his right to review of the delivery order—
 - (a) no such application as is mentioned in section 12 may be made, and
 - (b) the order shall be taken for all purposes to be validly made.
- (5) Where a person has waived his right to review, notice of that fact shall be given—
 - (a) if the person is in custody, to the prison governor, constable or other person in whose custody he is;
 - (b) if the person is on bail in the Territory, to the officer in charge of the police station at which he is required to surrender to custody.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(b) notice shall be treated as given if it is sent by registered post, or recorded delivery, addressed to the officer mentioned.

Warrants, custody, bail and related matters

Effect of warrant of arrest

- 18.—(1) For the purpose of any enactment or rule of law relating to warrants of arrest—
 - (a) a section 2 warrant endorsed or issued in the Territory, or
 - (b) a provisional warrant issued in the Territory, shall be treated as if it were a warrant for the arrest of a person for an offence committed in the Territory.

- (2) Any such warrant may be executed by any person to whom it is directed or by any constable.
- (3) A person arrested under any such warrant shall be deemed to continue in legal custody until, in accordance with this Part, he is brought before a competent court.

Effect of delivery order

19.—(1) A delivery order is sufficient authority for any person acting in accordance with the directions of the Governor to receive the person to whom the order relates, keep him in custody and convey him to the place where he is to be delivered up into the custody of the ICC (or, as the case may be, of the state of enforcement) in accordance with arrangements made by the Governor.

(2) A person in respect of whom a delivery order is in force is deemed to be in legal custody at any time when, being—

- (a) in the Territory, or
- (b) on board a British ship, a British aircraft or a British hovercraft, or a ship, aircraft or hovercraft registered in the Territory, he is being taken under the order to or from any place or is being kept in custody pending his delivery up under the order.

(3) A person authorised for the purposes of a delivery order to take the person to whom the order relates to or from any place or, to keep him in custody, has (whether in or outside the Territory) all the powers, authority, protection and privileges of a constable in the Territory.

(4) If a person in respect of whom a delivery order is in force escapes or is unlawfully at large, he may be arrested without warrant by a constable and taken to any place where or to which, by virtue of this Part, he is required to be or to be taken.

- (5) Omitted

Bail and custody: general

- 20.—(1) Where under this Part a court has power to remand a person, the court may—
- (a) remand him in custody, that is, commit him for the period of the remand to prison or to the custody of a constable, or
 - (b) if an application for bail is made to the court, remand him on bail, that is, direct him to surrender himself into the custody of the officer in charge of a specified police station at the time appointed for him to do so.
- (2) The law of the Territory as to bail applies to proceedings under this Part in the Territory as it applies to proceedings against a fugitive offender.
- (3) The time appointed under subsection (1)(b) for a person to surrender to custody—
- (a) shall be a time appointed by the officer in charge of the specified police station and notified in writing to the person remanded, and
 - (b) shall not be more than 24 hours before the time at which it appears to that officer that the period of remand is likely to end.
- (4) Omitted
- (5) Nothing in this Part shall be taken as authorising a court to grant bail to a person who is serving a sentence of imprisonment or detention to which he has been sentenced by a national court, or who is in custody awaiting trial or sentence by a national court.

Bail and custody: supplementary

- 21.—(1) The following provisions apply where a person is granted bail under this Part by a competent court in the Territory.
- (2) Where a court—
- (a) grants bail but is unable to release the person because no surety or suitable surety is available, and
 - (b) fixes the amount in which the surety is to be bound with a view to the recognizance of the surety being entered into subsequently,
- the court shall in the meantime commit the person to the custody of a constable.
- (3) During the period between the surrender of a person to custody and the end of the period of remand he shall be treated as committed to the custody of the constable to whom he surrenders.
- (4) Where it appears to that officer that the end of the period of remand will be unexpectedly delayed, he shall grant the person bail subject to a duty to surrender himself into the custody of the officer in charge of the specified police station at the time appointed for him to do so. The time appointed under this subsection for the person to surrender to custody—
- (a) shall be a time to be appointed by the officer in charge of the specified police station and notified in writing to the person remanded, and
 - (b) shall not be more than 24 hours before the time at which it appears to that officer that the period of remand is likely to end.
- (5) If a person required to surrender to custody in accordance with subsection (4) fails to do so—
- (a) the court by which he was remanded may issue a warrant for his arrest,
 - (b) provisions of section 14 (effect of warrant of arrest) apply in relation to the warrant, and
 - (c) on his arrest the person shall be brought before the court which shall reconsider the question of bail.
- (6) In this section “the specified police station” means the police station specified by the competent court under section 16(1)(b).

Bail and custody: consultation with the ICC, &c

- 22.—(1) Where an application for bail is made in proceedings under this Part in the Territory—
- (a) the court shall notify the Governor of the application,
 - (b) bail shall not be granted without full consideration of any recommendations made by the ICC.
- (2) Omitted
- (3) In considering any such application as is mentioned in subsection (1) the court shall consider—
- (a) whether, given the gravity of the offence or offences he is alleged to have committed or, as the case may be, of which he has been convicted by the ICC, there are urgent and exceptional circumstances justifying release on bail, and
 - (b) whether any necessary measures have been or will be taken to secure that the person will surrender to custody in accordance with the terms of his bail.

Discharge of person not delivered up

- 23.—(1) If the person in respect of whom a delivery order has been made is not delivered up under the order within 40 days after it was made, an application may be made, by him or on his behalf, for his discharge.
- (2) The application shall be made to the Supreme Court.
- (3) On an application under this section the court shall order the person's discharge unless reasonable cause is shown for the delay.

Discharge of the person no longer required to be surrendered

- 24.—(1) Where the ICC informs the Governor that a person arrested under this Part is no longer required to be surrendered—
- (a) the Governor shall notify an appropriate judicial authority of that fact, and
 - (b) the authority shall, on receipt of the notification, make an order for his discharge.
- (2) Omitted

Request for transit and unscheduled landing

Request for transit

- 25.—(1) This section applies where the Governor receives a request from the ICC for transit of a person being surrendered by another state.
- (2) If the Governor accedes to the request—
- (a) the request shall be treated for the purposes of this Part as if it were a request for that person's arrest and surrender,
 - (b) the warrant accompanying the request shall be deemed to have been endorsed under section 2(3), and
 - (c) the person to whom the request relates shall be treated on arrival in the Territory as if he had been arrested under that warrant.
- (3) In relation to a case where this section applies—
- (a) the reference in section 5(2)(a)(i) to the warrant having been duly endorsed under section 2(3) shall be read as a reference to the Governor having acceded to the request for transit; and
 - (b) section 12(1) (right to review of delivery order: period for making application) shall have effect as if the reference to 15 days (the period during which directions to execute delivery order are not to be given) were a reference to two days.

(4) A person in transit under this section shall not be granted bail.

Unscheduled landing

26.—(1) If a person being surrendered by another state makes an unscheduled landing in the Territory, he may be arrested by any constable and shall be brought before a competent court as soon as is practicable.

(2) The court shall remand him in custody pending—

- (a) receipt by the Governor of a request from the ICC for his transit, and
- (b) the Governor's decision whether to accede to the request.

(3) If no such request is received by the Governor before the end of the period of 96 hours beginning with the time of the arrested person's unscheduled landing—

- (a) the Governor shall forthwith notify the court of that fact, and
- (b) the court shall, on receipt of the notification, discharge the arrested person.

(4) If the Governor receives such a request before the end of that period, he shall notify the court without delay of his decision whether to accede to the request.

(5) If the Governor notifies the court that he has decided to accede to the request—

- (a) the court shall, on receipt of the notification, terminate the period of remand, and
- (b) the provisions of section 21 (request for transit) apply with the substitution for the reference in subsection (2)(c) to the time of arrival in the Territory of a reference to the time of notification to the court.

(6) If the Governor notifies the court that he has decided not to accede to the request, the court shall, on receipt of the notification, discharge the arrested person.

(7) Omitted.

Supplementary provisions

Provisions as to state or diplomatic immunity

27.—(1) Any state or diplomatic immunity attaching to a person by reason of a connection with a state party to the ICC Statute does not prevent proceedings under this Part in relation to that person.

(2) Where—

- (a) state or diplomatic immunity attaches to a person by reason of a connection with a state other than a state party to the ICC Statute, and
- (b) waiver of that immunity is obtained by the ICC in relation to a request for that person's surrender, the waiver shall be treated as extending to proceedings under this Part in connection with that request.

(3) A certificate by the Governor—

- (a) that a state is or is not a party to the ICC Statute, or
- (b) that there has been such a waiver as is mentioned in subsection (2), is conclusive evidence of that fact for the purposes of this Part.

(4) The Governor may in any particular case, after consultation with the ICC and the state concerned, direct that proceedings (or further proceedings) under this Part which, but for subsection (1) or (2), would be prevented by state or diplomatic immunity attaching to a person shall not be taken against that person.

(5) Any Order in Council made under section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946 (c.45), as extended by section 23(5) of this Act as it applies in the United Kingdom, shall likewise apply in the Territory.

(6) In this section “state or diplomatic immunity” means any privilege or immunity attaching to a person, by reason of the status of that person or another as head of state, or as representative, official or agent of a state, under—

- (a) the Diplomatic Privileges Act 1964 (c.81), the Consular Relations Act 1968 (c.18), the International Organisations Act 1968 (c.48) or the State Immunity Act 1978 (c.33) as applying in the Territory,
- (b) any other law applying in the Territory made for the purpose of implementing an international obligation, or
- (c) any rule of law derived from customary international law.

Delivery up of persons subject to criminal proceedings, &c

28.—(1) Schedule 2 makes provision for cases where the Governor receives a request from the ICC for the arrest and surrender, or provisional arrest, of a person—

- (a) against whom criminal proceedings are pending or in progress before a court in the Territory, or who has been dealt with in such proceedings,
- (b) against whom extradition proceedings are pending or in progress in the Territory, or in respect of whom a warrant or order has been made in such proceedings, or
- (c) against whom proceedings are pending or in progress in the Territory for a delivery order in connection with proceedings in any other international tribunal.

Documents having effect as warrants, &c

29.—(1) For the purposes of this Part the copy of a warrant issued by the ICC that is transmitted to the Governor shall be treated as if it were the original warrant.

(2) Where facsimile transmission is used—

- (c) that any of the following circumstances apply.

(6) Those circumstances are—

- (a) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises,

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order, made under the International Criminal Court Act 2001, extends provisions of the Act, with modifications, to the overseas territories specified in Annex 2. Certain provisions of the 2001 Act are omitted as they are not relevant to overseas territories or there is no intention that the provisions be applied there (for example, those relating to enforcement of sentences of imprisonment in Part 4 of the Act). This will enable the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, done at Rome on 17 July 1998, to be extended to the Overseas Territories listed in Annex 2 to this order. No Regulatory Impact Assessment has been produced in respect of this Order because it applies exclusively in the Overseas Territories concerned.
